

1st International Day of Medical Independence
Saturday 1st December 2012 - "Elie" amphitheatre, Moufia campus,
University of Reunion

Saint Denis, Reunion Island

9:00am: Welcome speech by Prof. Sudel Fuma (University Professor and Director of the UNESCO Chair for Reunion Island)

9:10am: Introductory speech by Dr Philippe de Chazournes (Organiser and President of Méd'Ocean), and information on the sequence of the day's events

What does the word "independence" mean to you in the Health sector?

9:30am: Introductory VIDEO by Dominique Dupagne Can we be completely independent?

DEBATE

The INDEPENDENCE of medical decisions/thinking ... with regards to the patient and their demands, justifiable and unjustified, faced with "progress" and all its temptations -

10:00am Aude-Emmanuelle Hoareau, President of the Philosophical Circle of Réunion : Modern medicine or the development of a new drug mythology? "Oh, Doctor! I feel better already just seeing you!"

10:15am Laurence Pourchez (anthropologist, Department of Research and Training in Health, University of Réunion): Cure and care: does care have to be medicated? "Oh, Doctor! I feel better already just seeing you!" DEBATE

10:40am presentation followed by a VIDEO by Ray Moynihan All these diseases that are invented to make new medication for (Overdiagnosis)

10:45am sharp Ray Moynihan via Skype from Brisbane DEBATE

11:10am VIDEO Anne Chailleu (FORMINDEP) The European medication circuit, complex, under influence and corrupt? DEBATE

JI IM humour

Adrien Gruchet, Ethno-psychologist:
Convictions, Influences or Tribulations of a patient. DEBATE

.....

The INDEPENDENCE of medical decisions/thinking ... with regards to the authorities ... and ... "the judge", the patient's "choice", performance and "profitability":
“Development, circulation, review and enforceability of Recommendations”

1:45pm Video by Mrs. Lynn Weeks (NPS Sydney, the voice of the National Prescribing Service (Australian equivalent to HAS)

2:00 -2:30pm ++ SKYPE with Mrs. Lynn Weeks (NPS Sydney) NPS independence faced with the Australian Government and the pharmaceutical industry

Conversation with Prof. Harousseau (President of HAS [French National Authority for Health]) How to make prescribers aware of the best practices and recommendations (French/Australian experiences) DEBATE

2:30pm Chantal de Singly, director of the ARS [Regional Health Authority for the Indian Ocean area], Independent decision, right decision

2:45pm Prof. Harousseau (President of HAS) the role of HAS and managing conflicts of interest

3:00pm Jean-Xavier Bello Health Director, Social Security, Reunion and Dr. Alain Gruber, Chief physician, DRSM: Review of the performance contract: Independence - reinforced or challenged? DEBATE

3:20pm Theodore Hoarau, Mutualité Reunion Health Insurance the food business faced with the major dangers threatening us

3:30pm Celine Kuhn, Professor of Medical Law and Bioethics, University of Réunion: Patients and their rights in the face of medical omnipotence

(Richard Bometon) Public Prosecutor of Reunion (or a member of the Public Prosecutor's Office): What is the relationship between the Public Prosecutor's Office and the JI IM?!

3:50pm VIDEO Dr Dominique Dupagne: The revenge of the rower DEBATE

The INDEPENDENCE of medical decisions/thinking ... faced with the industry ... and its "spider's web"

Challenges and benefits of independent training, without conflicts of interest

4:20pm A giant spider's web! JI IM humour

4:30pm Dr. Bertrand Leriche, president of the Reunion Medical Association, the Association faced with this spider's web: and if Georges Brassens was right?

4:45pm Dr. Antoine de Beco (SFTG President) difficult not to be caught up in the spider's web

5:00pm Dr. Bruno Toussaint editor in chief of PRESCRIRE A spider's web always has prescribers ... and consumers ...!

5:15pm Dr Philippe Foucras FORMINDEP: From this spider's web to the French Sunshine Act ... DEBATE

"Government strategies under the influence"

Global "Spider's web" and the drug supply circuit.

5:30pm Agnes Vitry (Australia) Australian initiatives and their outcomes in terms of quality use of medication. Factors explaining the differences observed at an international level. DEBATE

5:45pm Dr. Louis Adrien Delarue Vice President of FORMINDEP The difficulty of asserting a reasoned opinion in a university context via a medical thesis. DEBATE

6:00-6:30pm Med'Ocean d'Or 2012 prize-giving

From Reunionese tradition to experimental avant-garde!

6:30-6:40pm CONCLUDING VIDEO BY Dr. Martin Winckler ' Why and how should we help those who are fighting? DEBATE

SUMMARY AND PERSPECTIVES by Dr. Philippe de Chazournes

Then ... Independence Cocktail (subject to funding + +)

"If you think you are too small to change anything, try sleeping with a mosquito in your room." Betty Reese